RECOMMENDED NEW MEMBER ACTIVITIES

1. New member orientation meetings: Fireside meetings are hosted during the Rotary year and you are encouraged to attend. These will further acquaint you with Rotary and you will meet other new members.
2. Being a greeter: This gives you the opportunity to meet as many other members as possible by greeting them as they arrive for meetings.
3. Introduce or thank a guest speaker: This is a great way of getting involved in the club's weekly meeting.
4. Present a classification talk: The purpose of this is to acquaint the club with your business or profession at a club meeting. It helps the membership to know you and broadens your acquaintance with the club.
5. Regular engagement: Feel free to visit Rotary clubs anywhere in the world.
6. Choose a committee or two on which you would like to serve. Discuss with your sponsor and mentor the club committees that are scheduled for the Rotary year.
7. Participate in a hands-on project: Identify a club project that meets your interests. There are many such projects that are carried out throughout the year. Get involved.
8. Attend a meeting of the Board of Directors: This will further your knowledge of our club's functions and enhance your acquaintance with members.
9. Attend club assembly: It is important to attend an assembly to get the business pulse of the club and informally share for future activities.
10. Become familiar with the Rotary Club Locator. This provides pertinent information about other clubs around the world.
Website (clubrunner) / Clubrunner app.
11. Visit another Rotary club. Helps you to keep in touch with activities carried out by other clubs and hear new speakers.
12. Invite a guest to Rotary: Once involved with Rotary it is hoped that your enthusiasm will encourage you to seek out two or three guests to invite to a club meeting or club social.
13. Propose a new member: New members provide its energy and new ideas to existing and new service projects. Membership is a priority this year.
